Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Barbara Schock is an independent filmmaker/director who was raised in South Dakota by her hard-working and esteemed parents, Al and Phyllis Schock; and,

Whereas, Barbara assisted Director David Fincher on location in London on Alien 3 and Producer Michael Nozik on Michael Apted's Thunderheart, filmed in the Badlands National Park and on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Barbara received her Master of Fine Arts from the American Film Institute and has been a film and writing professor for New York University's Tisch Asia graduate film program in Singapore. She is now a faculty member of New York University's Tisch graduate film program in New York; and,

Whereas, Barbara's directorial effort and American Film Institute thesis film, My Mother Dreams the Satan's Disciples in New York won the 2000 Academy Award for Best Live Action Short Film, the Director's Guild of America Ida Lupino Award, the Kodak Award for Excellence in Student Filmmaking, as well as 12 additional national and international awards; and,

Whereas, Barbara is a member of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences and a member of the Executive Committee for the Academy's Short Film and Feature Animation Branch:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 21, 2011, as in South Dakota.

BARBARA SCHOCK DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor

Attest:

Jason Gant

Jason M. Gant, Secretary of State